Revised by our Judge 11th J. L. F. J.
At Chambers.

Kelua May 31. 1892

Court opened at 10 am. The case of Juen v. Ah Siu^c

Unlawful Possession of Gambling Tickets.

On appeal from the Dist Jus. of Kelua.
convicting deft of said offense and sentencing him to pay a fine of $100. & costs. $3.00.

Def't appeals on account of excessive fine.
Def't appeared with his atty. Mikael.
L. Kaelua for crown.

Def't asked for a trial upon the merits and denied having given notice to Judge Kala that he wished to appeal for mitigation of sentence. — Hearing continued to 2 P.M.

2 P.M. Judge Kala appeared and stated that the notice of appeal was rec'd from Ah Pau^c who said it was for a reduction of penalty.
Ah Pau. handed him the cert. $4.-
Def't was not present at the time.

The interview was on the road.

It appearing that the appeal was ^{noted in} ~~noted in~~ to the lower Court as an appeal for mitigation of penalty, and that def't was in pos'n of the tickets as an agent for the bank. no ground for reduction of sentence was found and the sentence of the lower Court was affirmed to wit Fine $100. & & costs below. Costs at Chambers remitted
